

Knowledge Building Series – Timeline 2025

What is it?

- Seven 1.5-hour webinars and online workshops for public authorities to help them address modern slavery and human rights risks in their global supply chains.
 - Five sessions on high-risk, high-spend sectors
 - Two skills building workshops on evidence: evaluating the quality of information from suppliers to meet their contract criteria and how they can improve it.

- Practical guidance notes covering the issues, questions to ask suppliers and key contacts with expertise in particular sectors and countries

Save the dates!

All webinars will take place online 11:00 - 12:30 CET with links sent to named participants.

Participating public authorities should send the list of participants with their names and e-mail addresses to Cindy Berman and Haëndila Varela at least one week before these webinars.
